Steering Drivers on the Road to Safety

In Florida, New Drivers must complete a 4-hour Traffic Law and Substance Abuse course before getting their Learner's Permit

We provide parents and their teens tools and resources to help new drivers get their learner's permits and become safe, responsible drivers. To help promote driver safety we provide the 4-Hour Traffic Law and Substance abuse course, along with other tools like:

- Parent-Teen Driving Contract
- Parent-Teen Driving Handbook
- Parent-Teen Driving Log
- Several One-Hour Continuing Education Courses
- Safe Teen Driving Monthly Newsletter

We've created a Learner's Permit Fundraising Program that benefits Teens, Parents and raises money for schools!

EARN 20% for every student that takes their Drug and Alcohol Course with SafeDriver.com

20% of the cost of all courses the student takes with SafeDriver.com qualifies for the Fund Raising Program.
